Review of the Season:

The First XI, although losing several matches, generally by narrow margins, had a fairly good season and included a number of outstanding performances.

Harry Henson, the captain, won the Webster Cup for the best bowling average and former Derby County & Nottingham Forest footballer Tom Hinchcliffe, topped the batsmen.

The 2nd XI under the captaincy of Les Bloor, had a particularly good season and the Junior XI won all their matches and along the way discovered a number of promising youngsters, who when called up to the senior teams, played well.
