Review of the Season:

The Annual General Meeting took place on Tuesday 2 February 1965 in the Lecture Room.
 Presentations made to Batting Trophy winner: Reg Marriott. Bowling Cup winner: Keith Richmond.
 Match Tax was raised to 2/6d 1st XI & 2/-d 2nd XI.
 One minutes silence took place for F Gill & W Gunn, both past Presidents and A Forman 2nd XI skipper in the previous season, all of whom died in the past year.

A very disappointing season and as a consequence of a lack of players it was necessary to withdraw the 2nd XI from the League. Highlights were the century by Keith Richmond, the first recorded for the club for a number of seasons and the emergence of 16 year old Brian Stubbs as a batting star of the future.
