Review of the Season:

The Annual General Meeting took place at the Keyworth Village Hall on 9 March 1971. Cash in hand £138. 7s. 2d Subscriptions were raised to £1.50p. Match Tax 50p.

Green was officially adopted as the Club Colour (Australian Fielding Cap Green).

Jeff Read was outstanding in the season, finishing with more than 50 wickets and deservedly picked up the Captain's special award at the Club's end of season Annual Dinner.

Nottinghamshire CCC player Basharat Hassan was the "Guest of Honour" and presented Wm Gunn Batting Trophy to Alan Copson and Bowling award to Michael Crispin.

Umpire, Stan Armstrong received a silver tankard in gratitude for his long service with the club. Mr Arthur Ford, Chairman of the Keyworth Playing Fields Association was also a special guest.

All matches played in the season were friendlies.
