Review of the Season:

Won the Eddie Marshall Shield under Clive Morrissey's captaincy, beating Notts County Officers, Plessey Sports, Lenton United, Kegworth in the Semi Final – Mick Brooks smashing a magnificent 60 to get us back in the match after falling to 24 -3 and then John Baldrey & Bill Taylor, the last pair at the wicket for the last 3 balls in fading light. No 11 John missed the first ball, but smote the very last ball for a towering six to win the match. The final was covered by Radio Nottingham and in front of a good size crowd we achieved a respectable 108 before bowling Southwell out for 48 from a combination of fine bowling and fielding and all adjourned to the Keyworth Tennis Club for refreshments and celebration. The trophy was presented by former England & Nottinghamshire fast bowler Harold Butler.

left to right (back row)...Mick Brooks, John Baldrey, Dave Hallam, David Baldrey, Brian Cannell, Bill Taylor & Ernie Lay

The "Presentation Evening" should have been re-named the Mike Brooks Presentation evening as he picked up...Arthur Ford Cup for the Highest Score; Hartley Cup for Best Bowling Performance & Crafts Webster Cup for the Best Bowling Average.

The William Gunn Batting Trophy for the Best Average was received by John Dring

The Fielding Trophy went to Boyd Wild and the President's Clubman Trophy was presented to Nigel Roylance in his last season with club
