Review of the Season:

South Nottinghamshire Village is now affiliated to the Club Cricket Conference.

The two Saturday teams started the season only one division apart and despite high expectations of the 1st XI getting promoted, both teams finished midway in their respective divisions.

Chris Keeling Clubman of the Year Trophy awarded to Cliff Anderson

Commercial sponsorship was secured from The Key Health & Fitness Club for the next three seasons and new tracksuits and cricket shirts were available for the start of the season.

The highlight of the season was defeating the old enemy Plumtree by 6 wickets in the League Cup Final.

We also won the Thurgarton Sixes Tournament – see last page for photos.

Presentations included...

Gunn Batting Trophy for the Best Average & Highest Score Trophy – Richard Drury

2nd XI Batting Trophy for Best Average – Ernie Lay

Bowling Trophy for Best Average – Paul Branch

Best Bowling Performance Trophy – Tony Newby

2nd XI Bowling Trophy for Best Average – Dave Hallam

Everybody gathers for the presentation of the Senior KO Cup in the gloom of the evening.

John Dring (captain) receives the trophy
