Review of the Season:

The club took up residence at the Platt Lane Sportsground and were immediately assisted by grants from Nottinghamshire County Council & the Olympic Legacy Fund to pay for twin Practice Nets & Artificial Surfacing and Pitch Covers, and the England & Wales Cricket Trust to contribute toward the cost of Boundary Fencing and a sponsor helped pay for the building of a new Scorebox with digital numbers (photo right). The facilities were officially opened by Notts & England wicket keeper Chris Read & Councillor John Cottee on 14 July.

arguably the youngest player ever to captain a KCC adult team v West Bridgfordians CC II^os on 2 June 2013, aged 15 years, then went on to become the youngest ever KCC centurion with 111 against Woodborough CC for the 2nd XI on 3 August 2013. Tom also played for the Nottingham League Under 15s representative team.

14 year old wicket-keeper Tom Blacklock made his debut for the 1st XI at Kimberley on 10 August 2013.

7 KCC juniors played in representative matches for the South in Sub County matches: Tom Blacklock (Under 14s); Sam Foster, Oscar Malik, Jack Rhodes, George Staton & Liam Woods (Under 13s) and Blake Southwell (Under 12s) and subsequently Tom Blacklock & Jack Rhodes were invited for County trials at Under 15 & 14 respectively.

The Under 13s won the Newark League Cup and were League runners up and the Under 14s were runners up in the Newark Cup. The Schools Festival was another overwhelming success and juniors were flocking to net practice sessions once the new facilities were in place.

The 1st XI found life tough in the dizzy heights of League Division B and were relegated but the 2nd XI after a slow start found their feet and finished mid table in Division J with many junior players comfortably blooded into adult cricket and Richard Drury at the helm scoring runs for fun including -back to back centuries whilst the Sunday XI playing competitive cricket in the Newark Alliance League for the first time and predominately a team of Colts, finished runners up in Division 7 and gained promotion and best of all we were blessed with fine summer weather and a host of cricket matches, senior and junior.

On a sad note was the passing of Vice President John Keeling, father of former players Chris & Paul in August, former 2nd XI stalwart bowler and unofficial club photographer John Beeton in October and Geoff Ward also in October, a former Club Chairman and bowler from the 1970s and long serving Vice President.
