MEMBERS OF KEYWORTH CRICKET CLUB

This year we have introduced an Honours Board which you can see in our garden.

This shows all the honours and officers of KCC back as far as records exist.

Our Club Statistician Barry Baker is creating his research to record before the First World War.

Here is an extract from Barry's latest findings.....

The first cricket competition was played in 1866 and Edward Crockett Club (which later became the first women's club) were the winners. The club was founded by Edward Crockett and his wife, who was the daughter of a local landowner. The club was founded in 1866 and played its first match in 1867.
